Date	Age	Life Event
October 7, 1954	0	Born to Flora Mae and Roy Evans. He had one half sister, Robbie.
1957	3	By this age Flora Mae, Gary's mother, had already made suicide attempts in front of her children. In one attempt, his mother's gun misfired or Gary's father, Roy, shot her. It nearly blew her shoulder off.
1962	8	Evans started stealing at a young age. He brought home a stolen ring worth $1,000. He also stole things such as comic books. His mother was also thief. Jo Rehm, a close childhood friend of Gary and his sister (Robbie), moved across town over and was seen less often.
June 1968	13	His sister gets married, but gets divorced quickly because her husband is abusive. Gary comes to stay with her for a while to get out of Cohoes, New York.
1968	14	Flora Mae divorced her husband Roy and moved to Cohoes, New York with Robbie and Gary.
Summer of 1970	15	Gary first committed Petit larceny by robbing someone's home. He spent 90 days in jail.
1970	16	Flora Mae moves to Potterville, New York. She married a 3 rd time and divorced him shortly after the man was found to be an abusive alcoholic as well. She then moved to Astoria in Queens, New York. Here she married another man named Jim. He also turned out to be a drunk. Her marriage was also broken this same year. She also developed pleurisy around this time.
1971	17	Mother has lesbian relationship and gives up on men.

1971	17	Gary is still sleeping where ever he can and is stealing food. From the years of 1971 to 1998, Evans received 15 Felony convictions and was arrested a total of 22 times.
Mid 1970's	20	Reunited with childhood acquaintances Tim Rysedorph and Michael Falco. All three men ended up sharing an apartment together only a few blocks from Gary's childhood home in Troy. Gary lived in a shed behind
1077	22	the apartment and in wooded areas before he moved in. Robbia (sigtor) moves to Elevide
1977		Robbie (sister) moves to Florida.
1977	23	Gary meets Deirdre Fuller. He had a thirteen year relationship with her on and off. He met her when he went to rob some stores up north. One day he got mad at her because she did not tell him she was dating someone else. He was fine with her dating other people before, but now it was different. Her new boyfriend was African American. Gary did not like that at all and told her it was over. He demanded that she give him back everything he had ever given her or else he would have to hurt her. She never saw this side of Gary until then. Years later Gary admits that he would "like to kill a woman and a nigger".
January 1977	22	Flora Mae moves to upstate New York to live with lesbian lover.
January 13, 1977	22	Gary was caught in the act of robbing a home in Lake Placid, New York and was sentenced to 4 years in state prison for 3rd degree larceny. He was held at Clinton Correctional Facility in Dannemora, New York.
July 1977	22	Gary's father Roy lost his life to throat cancer at the age of 35. Gary was in jail at this time.
1979	25	Midway though serving his sentence at Clinton Correctional Facility, Gary was moved to Great Meadow Correctional Facility in Washington County, New York.
March 21, 1980	25	He was released from prison after serving 2 years of a 4 year sentence. He moved back in with Tim Rysedorph and Michael Falco. He immediately started burglaries again. He committed burglaries with Michael and used their apartment for stolen items and for planning the future burglaries.
Spring 1980	25	Gary was caught with a couple hundred dollars in stolen items and was sent back to jail because he was still out on parole for not serving the remaining 2 years of his sentence. He was brought to Old Rensselaer County Jail in downtown Troy, New York. He escaped with the help of some of the Hells Angels, but was picked up about 5 hours after he escaped and brought back to the jail. He was then placed in solitary confinement.
September 11, 1980	25	Gary's parole was revoked and he was sentenced for a second time in 4 years to another 2 to 4 year bid at Clinton Correctional Facility.
October 21, 1981	27	Gary spends his 27 th birthday behind bars at Clinton Correctional Facility.
March 19, 1982	27	Gary was denied parole. He claimed it was because "he had to talk to a counselor about his anti-social behavior".
December 12, 1982	27	A few months before Gary was going to be let out on parole, the New York State Department of Corrections transferred him. He was moved about 400 miles west to Attica State Prison. It is known for having the worst criminals. He was not allowed in the general population of the prison. Jim Horton, an investigator closest to Evans, believes while he was at the facility, he began to think of murder.
December 29, 1982	28	Released from Attica State Prison. Gary started burglarizing again. He did a few small jobs with Michael Falco.
January 1983	28	Gary went to Florida.
February 6, 1983	28	Gary's mother dies. The NYPD notified the family that she fell on some ice getting into the door of her car and bumped her head on the bumper of her car. Her body was found in the fetal position. It was only months before her 51 st birthday.

Spring 1983	28	Gary was back in crime with his old business partners Michael Falco and Tim Rysedorph.
April 22, 1983	28	Gary was caught again on Easter day. This time he was burglarizing a home.
May 10, 1983	28	He was picked again while he was out on bond. The crimes he committed this time were grand larceny and burglary. He was taken to Saratoga County Jail.
1984	29	He was moved to Warren County Jail. He was later moved back to the Saratoga County Jail.
February 1984	29	By the end of February, Gary was moved again. This time, Gary was moved to the Montgomery County Jail.
March 1984	29	By the end of March, Gary was back at the Warren County Jail.
March 31, 1984	29	Evans was set free, but was put on a "conditional release program". This meant he had to be on his best behavior until the remainder of his sentence (9 months) was over. He committed burglaries as soon as he got out of jail, but he was never caught. He was living with Tim Rysedorph and Michael Falco.
September 16, 1984	29	This was Gary's release date and he was sat free from parole.
January 10, 1985	30	Gary's conditional release expired. Since Tim was not committing that many burglaries with Gary and Michael, Michael became Gary's main partner.
February 16, 1985	30	Falco and Evans go to East Greenbush, New York in Falco's brown Plymouth satellite. They bring along 2 large duffle bags, a police scanner, a rope ladder, and some common burglary tools. Their goal was to get some gold and valuables. They hopped on top of a portable toilet and got up on the roof. They then entered through the using the hatch to the roof. They filled the two duffle bags with jewelry and valuables wroth about $15,000. When they got in the car and drove for a minute, a cop pulled them over. The cop asked them what they were doing behind the building and they said they had to go to the bathroom. The cop wrote down their names and addresses and let them go.
April 21, 1985	30	He acted like he was going to do a drug deal with two guys. When the guys went in his trunk to get a large quantity of marijuana, Gary took off on foot. Gary had taken $12,000 from the guys. Gary later came back to the same parking lot where they had met and stole the car the two guys had came in. The two guys then went to the police and said Gary Evans robbed them of $12,000 at gun point and then stole their car. He traveled from Troy to Cohoes, New York. As Evans pulled into town, he ran a red light. A cop saw him and turned on his lights to pull him over. Evans thought he was being pulled over for the burglary and took off, throwing the gun and his fake identification out of the vehicle. Evans finally gave up. Police later retrieved the gun and the fake identification.
April 22, 1985	30	Gary moved from the Cohoes County Jail to the Albany County Jail where Jim Horton (an investigator) could talk to him. Evans confessed to Horton that he and Falco had been tipped off about how to get into the building by the father of someone they knew. He then had to sign a statement. He was waiting for sentencing of charges of criminal possession of a weapon, first degree armed robbery, and grand larceny and burglary of a jewelry store. Horton notices that a Cohoes Police Officer stole $3,000 of the $12,000 that Evans had stolen from the two drug dealers. Evans remained in county jail until his sentencing.
July 1985	30	Evans was sentenced to another 2 to 4 year period in early July. He was moved to Clinton Correctional Facility. He was also moved to Renssaler County Jail in July of 1985 and was soon released.

July 1985	30	Killed Michael Falco age 30. Evans uses a .22-caliber pistol with a homemade silencer made of door screen and duct tape to shoot Michael Falco in the back of the head. It happened in Gary, Michael, and Tim's apartment in New York. Tim Rysedorph was upstairs in their apartment at the time. Evans put the body in the trunk of Tim's car. Evans then got Tim to help him wrap the body in a sleeping bag. They then drove all the way to Lake Worth, Florida (in Palm Beach County) where Gary's sister Robbie lived. They buried Falco near his Robbie's house and stayed in Florida for about 6 weeks. They then went back to New York. The reason Evans shot Falco was because Tim Rysedorph told him that Michael Falco had stolen a piece of stolen jewelry from him. In reality, Rysedorph has stolen the necklace and given it to a lady the three men knew well. After Evans had killed Falco, he found out Tim had lied when he saw a lady he knew wearing the necklace. The lady said Timmy had given it to her.
August 1985	30	Evans was arrested and moved to Sing Sing Correctional Facility in Westchester County, New York in late August. At this time, Evans started writing letters to Jim Horton. He told on people in the letters. Evans also mentioned he heard someone had seen Falco at a concert. Horton was not yet aware Evans was a murderer.
December 1985	31	Gary Evans was transferred to Dannemora prison again. Around this same time, Robbie wrote Gary. Robbie would seldom write Gary in prison. She wrote that someone had called her and disguised themselves as Gary. She said it sounded just like him. The person said something about having a fetish with animals and then bragged about having sex with animals. It angered Gary, but he dropped the subject quickly.
March 1986	31	Gary wrote to Robbie that he had a visit from one of the Harrington twins. The twins were Steve and Bob. Steve is the twin that came to visit him. Steve and Gary were "business acquaintances" according to Gary. In addition, they had known each other for a long time, but it was not a friendship. Around this same time in jail, he started fantasizing about his ex-girl friend and her family he had not seen in close to 15 years. He planned on finding her and killing anyone who got in his way, including her current husband.
December 1986	32	Gary was moved to Clinton Correctional Facility. He was placed under protective custody by his counselor because he believed some of the Hells Angels were still after him. He wrote to Horton complaining that the police were holding him a little over 2 years (when his sentence had a maximum of 4 years). His release date was suppose to be in December of 1987, but he was informed it would not be until March of 1988. Evans wrote a letter to Horton and asked him to contact Torri Ellis (Falco's common-law wife) to see if she has heard anything about Michael Falco.
1987	32	Gary befriends David "the Son of Sam" Berkowitz. Berkowitz was known for killing young, innocent girls. David would often refer to Gary as "the Great Tricep King". Berkowitz angered Gary because he sent him a fitness magazine with an African American in an article. Berkowitz apologized and said he forgot how prejudice Gary was. When they were lifting one day Berkowitz got mad at Gary because Gary called him "David Berserk-o-witz".
December 1987	33	Gary went into a child molester's cell and "body slammed him all over". He was then placed in solitary confinement for 15 days. His punishment was considered to be lenient.
March 1, 1988	33	Gary was paroled and let out of jail. This time, he had worked out and built a lot of muscle. When he got out, he became friends with Damien Cuomo and started committing numerous burglaries with him. Around this same time he worked for a nursery and a local depot. While working at these places, he was still committing burglaries on the side. During this time, he was committing more crimes than he ever had before.

March 1989	34	Evans and Cuomo were pulled over and were asked to step out of the vehicle. The trunk was searched and the cops found all of the items they needed to commit a burglary and/or a kidnapping including 3 ski masks, 2 stun guns, a police scanner, 2 walkie talkies, a slim jim, crowbar, screwdrivers, duct tape, rope, 2 sets of handcuffs, gloves, hats, several maps of the Northeast, and a book on police radio frequencies. The cops did not do a thorough enough job because there was stolen merchandise in the door panels and under a carpet in the trunk. The two men were booked at the Albany Thruway State Police barracks. Evans and Cuomo would often wear shoes that were 3 or 4 sizes too big when committing the crimes in order to throw off police.
September 8, 1989	34	Killed Douglas J. Berry age 63. Douglas Berry was a store owner. Berry was asleep in his store after hours. Damien Cuomo and Evans robbed him and in the middle of the robbery, Berry woke up. Evans shot him once in the head with a .22-caliber Ruger with a silencer on it. Evans leaves a gun shell on the floor. His body was left at the scene and was not hidden. Evans kept an eye on the news in Watertown, New York about Douglas Berry's murder. A guy was arrested for it, but was soon released because there was not enough evidence.
December 26, 1989	35	Killed Damien Cuomo age 28. With Damien Cuomo, he shot him 3 times in the back of the head after handcuffing his hands behind his back. This shooting was also done with the .22 caliber. He then wrapped him up with a shower curtain, a blanket, and rope. Damien Cuomo's body was left at the scene and hidden in a hole 3 feet around Evans had dug a few weeks before. The hole had a wooden makeshift door on it. He covered Damien with top soil. He then covered the door with top soil and some brush. He decided to kill Cuomo because he supposedly ripped Evans off on the Watertown job. Evans only got about $15,000 for the Watertown job. Evans believed he should have received more money out of the stolen merchandise. Soon after killing Damien Cuomo, Gary went to Florida with his girlfriend at that time (she lived just down the street from Lisa and Damien). He brought her so it would not be so apparent he was hiding something.
Summer 1990	35	Evans goes to California to see Stacy, a former ex-girl friend he was obsessed with. He had not seen her for about 15 years. He planned to take her away from her husband and make her love him. He said that if he had to he would kill her husband. When Evans gets to California, he shows up at her work and later has an argument with her husband. She makes it clear that she does not want to have anything to do with him. He gets the point she wants nothing to do with him and then goes back to New York.
October 17, 1991	37	Killed Gregory Jouben, a jewelry shop owner, age 36. Evans shoots him 3 times in the back of the head with a .22-caliber pistol while he was looking at a piece of jewelry. For this murder, he put a pillow case around his gun to catch the shells, but he forgot he had left other things behind where he had been staking him out in empty office buildings above his store. Evans stole over $60.000 from Jouben after he shot him.
October 18, 1991	37	Gary left for Colorado the day after killing Gregory Jouben.
October 20, 1991	37	He returns only 2 days later from Colorado and goes to Latham. He puts the gun that he killed Jouben with and another gun he had was carrying in a metal box. He buries the box in the back of Albany Rural Cemetery in Menands. He also steals a marble bench from the cemetery that weighed about one thousand pounds and brought it straight to New York and sold it.

March of 1993	38	An antique shop owner, Kathy Alexander, found that several of her
March of 1993	36	expensive items were missing including priceless diamonds, some gold, and a rare handbag from a special collection. It estimated to be around $ 20,000.00. Gary broke in through the bathroom window. The woman found out 2 years later that it was Gary Evans, but she never suspected it
T 10 1004	20	was him.
January 10, 1994	39	Evans had been arrested for stealing a marble bench from a cemetery.
		Evans was placed in a cell next to Jeffery Williams in the Albany County Jail. Wingate and Horton placed Evans beside Williams to see if Evans could get and information out of Williams.
February 12, 1994	39	Evans was released from Albany County Jail.
March 20, 1994	39	Evans went into the Norman Williams Public Library in Woodstock,
,		Vermont when it was closed and stole the Birds of America book by James Audubon. A federal judge was on the Board of Trustees for the library.
Middle of June 1994	39	Evans met with Horton and Wingate. Evans turned himself in for stealing Wilder of Julie 1774		the Birds of America book. Horton talked to the federal judge after the FBI tried to get the book back from Evans. Horton was able to bring the judge down to 27 months instead of 25 to life for Evans. Evans agreed to return the book for the lesser sentence.
June 9, 1995	40	Evans was formally sentenced to 27 months for stealing the book. He waited about a year just to get the sentence. He was being held in federal prison in Vermont.
June 6, 1996	41	He was released from prison.
October 3, 1997	42	Killed Tim Rysedorph age 39. He shot Rysedorph 3 times in the back of ŕ		the head with a .22-caliber handgun. Rysedorph had been helping Evans clean out their storage room at Spare Room II Storage Facility of their stolen items. He then cut his body up with a chainsaw and bagged his body up in 5 pieces. Each part was bagged and tapped and then placed into a cardboard box. He rationalized his acts because he had to transport the body to the burial site on a steep hill in Brunswick, New York.
		Rysedorph was buried in a shallow grave. He tosses the gun on his way out of the storage facility. He tossed it over a fence and in a ditch that runs along the interstate. Evans said he tossed the chain saw into the Hudson River, but it was never found. After the murder, Evans jumps probation.
		Nobody was able to track him down for about 7 months. The police finally tracked him down and he was arrested in Jonesbury, Vermont
October 4, 1997	42	Evans calls Lisa Morris and asks where Tim Rysedorph is and she says ŕ		she does not know. He says his name is Lou. She asks who he is and he says he is a friend from work and he is returning a call from Tim. He suggests that maybe Tim is in trouble, since Lisa has not heard from him.
October 5, 1997	42	Evans calls Lisa Morris using his alias Lou again. He says that Tim might
October 5, 1777	72	be gone like Mike. He was referring to Michael Falco.
Mar. 27, 1000	12
May 27, 1998	43	Evans was captured without incident in Jonesbury, Vermont. He also
I 2 1000	12	confesses to killing 5 people.
June 3, 1998	43	He was moved from Vermont jail to Albany County jail as a federal
	L	prisoner. He spent most of his time in Albany in protective lockdown.
June 19, 1998	43	He admitted to killing Tim Rysedorph. Evans was taken to Brunswick so he could show where he had buried the body in two shallow graves.
June 24, 1998	43	He admitted to the killings of two jewelry shop owners. They were Douglas Berry and Gregory Jouben. Later that day, he admitted to killing Damien Cuomo. Evans later lead investigators to where he had buried Cuomo in the woods. The body was in a shallow grave with top soil on top of it. Jim Horton makes Evans call Lisa Morris. Horton wanted Evans to tell her that he had killed her boyfriend (Cuomo) and tell her he was sorry for leading her on all of those years. Evans had led Lisa to believe

Evans d to killing Michael Falco on this day and told Horton he was his sister's house in Lake Worth, Florida. He was not o Florida to show them where he placed the body because he red to be too high of an escape risk.

Physically attractive?	Yes, piercing blue eyes, muscular build
Physical defect?	No
Speech defect?	No
Head injury?	Unknown
Physically abused?	 Yes His father physically abused him when he disobeyed him. His father would beat him senseless often with a leather strap his father used to sharpen his straight razor. His father would beat him until Gary had welts swelled up on his body. His father would make him sit at the table for hours to finish his liver and Gary did not like liver. His father would even strap him to a chair and force feed him until he ate all of the liver. Gary would sometimes turn purple where he could not breathe. When Gary was young, his father and his mothers' male
Psychologically abused?	acquaintances would beat him. Yes
	 His mother and father argued a lot. A neighbor during his childhood described him as not being allowed to have friends and being confined in his room like a prisoner. His father liked to lock him in his room, sometimes for days at a time. Jo Realm said that often times the only way Gary could eat was when she delivered food to his window from hers where their apartment buildings were so close. He would go without food for 24 hour periods. His father would not let him watch television or let him buy any art supplies when he was interested in art. His mother would take him to a doctor's office and make him sit outside the room while his mother had sex with someone. He could hear them. His mother had scars on her wrists from trying to slit them so many times. His mother tried jumping off the top of the apartment building, but Robbie talked her down. His mother would often go to the railroad tracks and wait for a train to kill her. Robbie would tell her that she and Gary loved her very much and could not see living without her. She would then go back home. When he and his sister were little, his mother would slaughter animals in front of them for dinner. Father would take the light bulbs out of Gary's room so he could not see.
Sexually abused?	Yes • He says that his father and mother sexually abused him. • He said his father sexually abused him to the point that "he would not wish what his father did to him on anyone". • Evans said his father would handcuff him to a post in his basement in their apartment on First Street. His father would then "molest him in the most vile ways". This could explain why he was always found with handcuff keys in various body parts when he was arrested.
